

MCA Membership Application Form

Membership eligibility criteria are stipulated in the Constitution of the MCA.

Upon admission to membership, the member shall; amongst others,

- be bound by and accept the provisions of the MCA Constitution and any rules framed thereunder or policies laid down by the MCA as amended from time to time, including but not limited to the MCA Code (as amended from time to time), its enforcement processes and rulings made by its enforcement structures; and
- be required to treat as confidential any documents so marked by the MCA.

An applicant shall not be admitted to membership until approved by the MCA Board and the annual membership fees and any other fees or levies payable, as may be applicable, have been paid in full. The MCA shall respond to companies within three weeks of receiving an application to advise on the outcome of the Board deliberation.

MCA membership fees are determined annually according to the turnover band of each applicant. The declaration of turnover band must be made annually and may be submitted directly to the MCA accounting officer, if preferred. (Accounting Officer: John Atkinson, KCE Consulting.
